

Frank A. Reddick

2010 Charter Review Board Profile

Photo:

Professional Information:

Frank Reddick is a lifelong resident and graduate of public schools in Hillsborough County. His educational background includes a Bachelor of Science Degree in Education/Psychology from Paine College, Augusta, Georgia.

Affiliations:

Mr. Reddick is currently the President & CEO of the Sickle Cell Association, president of the Northview Hills Civic Association, member of the Hospital Authority Board at Tampa General Hospital, former Tampa City Councilman for District 5, past member of the executive board of the East Tampa Partnership, immediate past chairman of the Lee Davis Neighborhood Center Advisory Board, past member of the Hillsborough County Civil Service Board, past member of the Human Relations Board, past member of the National Sickle Cell Disease Association of America Board and currently, vice-chairman of Community Health Charities of Florida Board of Directors. He also is chairman of Veterans Commons Community Development Corporation, Weed & Seed Tampa II Steering Committee, and a board member of Healthier Florida Foundation.