

Information from Mary Helen Farris regarding the 60% vote case status:

The case Citizen's for Term Limits & Accountability v. Lyons was appealed to the Florida Supreme Court, but the Court declined to review the First District Court of Appeal's ruling. Therefore, the case is still good. I could not find any other Charter Counties that impose a 60% requirement for charter amendments, and I found no other cases on this issue.

Mary Helen Farris, Managing Attorney
Hillsborough County Attorney's Office
813-272-5670
FAX: 813-272-5254
farrism@hillsboroughcounty.org